

Title: STANISHEV VISITS NEW YORK

Summary: Bulgaria's Prime Minister Sergey Stanishev is on an official visit to New York. Yesterday he participated in the ceremony to commemorate the end of the school year at the Bulgarian Hristo Botev school in New York. At the moment the school has 55 students.

Later Sunday, Stanishev would meet with the Bulgarian community in New York. In the evening the Prime Minister would have dinner with Alan Levy, Chairman of Tishman Group. The company wants to invest EUR 200 M in a logistics and business center near the Sofia airport. Soon it will give an offer to the Ministry of Transport. The Council of Ministers is expected to approve Levy for a Honorary Consul of Bulgaria in California.

Stanishev will participate in an investment forum in Harvard Business Club, in which will participate 181 people. Among them are representatives of companies like ITT, JPMorgan, AES Corporation, Deutsche Bank, etc.